

ABSTRACT

Title:

Draft methodical series in gaming skills - evading of opponents in preparation's categories U6-U11.

Objectives:

The aim of the study is to propose a methodical series of gaming skills evading the opponent in the preparation's categories U6-U11.

The operational objective is to create a video with various ways of evading the opponent in the preparation's categories U6-U11.

Methods:

When drafting the methodological series means of evading opponents at the footballers in preparation's categories. I have used the method of literature review based on inductive data analysis and special – purpose data collection.

Results:

The results of this work is draft methodological series means of evading opponent within the football club and create a video with various ways of evading opponent in each category.

Key words:

gaming skills, soccer, sports training children